STATEMENT OF ACCREDITATION:

Bethesda University holds programmatic accreditation with the Association for Biblical Higher Education Commission on Accreditation (COA). Approved programs were last reviewed by the COA in February 2016. The next comprehensive team visit will be conducted in the spring of 2025, followed by a COA review for reaffirmation of accreditation in February 2026. Current accreditation status expires February 28, 2026.

Programmatic accreditation was granted on the basis that the approved programs evidence substantial compliance with ABHE’s Programmatic Accreditation Standards, including documentation of the appropriateness, rigor, and achievement of the stated student learning outcomes. In the COA's judgment, the accredited programs had no significant deficiencies in satisfying the Programmatic Accreditation Standards or the related Essential Elements within the Standards. The institution's programs are currently in good standing with the ABHE Commission on Accreditation, and no sanctions (warning, probation, show cause why accreditation should be continued) are in effect.

The Association for Biblical Higher Education Commission on Accreditation is a national faith-related accrediting organization and is recognized by the United States Department of Education (USDE) and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA). The ABHE Commission on Accreditation is an institutional and programmatic accreditor. Institutions that are institutionally accredited have been examined as a whole. Institutions that are programmatically accredited have specific programs that have been reviewed in light of ABHE standards. This statement of accreditation information is the Commission’s official statement of an institution’s accredited status.
