

FALL 2023 LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT CONFERENCE LINEUP

ADVANCEMENT LEADERS CONFERENCE [1 1/2-DAY]

SEP 12-13, 2023 [Early Bird Deadline — August 11] | Begins with dinner on 9/11, ends with lunch on 9/13

This time in history marks the greatest creation of wealth the world has ever seen. This presents astonishing possibilities for fundraising. It's our time to hone our skills, craft the right strategy and step into the arena with prayerful boldness as stewardship ministers of the gospel. Join this exciting journey of connecting God's resources to His work at your institution. Build the bridges of blessing between those in whom God has entrusted resources with institutions raising up a new generation of spiritual leaders.

ACADEMIC LEADERS CONFERENCE [1 1/2-DAY]

SEP 19-20, 2023 [Early Bird Deadline — August 18] | Begins with dinner on 9/18, ends with lunch on 9/20

Sponsored by: Campus

Effective academic leadership from the CAO to department chairs and deans is necessary for a flourishing academic enterprise. This two-day conference designed for academic leaders will explore the diverse responsibilities and roles academic leaders and provide wise guidance for distinguished leadership. From faculty hiring, evaluation, development and transition to academic program assessment, management and delivery — review your skill set for academic leadership and grow.

INSTITUTIONAL ASSESSMENT CONFERENCE [2-DAY]

SEP 26-27, 2023 [Early Bird Deadline — August 25]

Sponsored By: WEAVE

An essential discipline of every mature institution is an effective system of assessment. This is not a one-time project on the institutional check list. It's an ongoing process that tracks learning outcomes and demonstrates institutional effectiveness; in short, it is how an institution knows how well they're delivering on their educational promise. An effective assessment system is the secret sauce of continuous quality improvement that informs budgeting and strategic planning. It's simply indispensable for institutional excellence. Learn from distinguished leaders across higher education how you can build effective assessment into the warp and weave of your institution.

ENROLLMENT LEADERS CONFERENCE [1 1/2-DAY]

OCT 3-4, 2023 [Early Bird Deadline — September 1] | Begins with dinner on 10/2, ends with lunch on 10/4

Sponsored By: NACCAP

While institutions come out of the pandemic, the pressure is on for enrollment leaders to figure out what their future enrollment will look like. What innovations that started in the pandemic will last? What must be re-captured? It's a great time to refocus our energies and recalibrate our enrollment strategy. Now is the time to lead with what's stood the test of time . . . and new ideas that are more effective than ever.

PRESIDENTS CONFERENCE [1 1/2-DAY]

OCT 17-18, 2023 [Early Bird Deadline — September 15] | Begins with dinner on 10/16, ends with lunch on 10/18

Sponsored by: The Timothy Group & Brotherhood Mutual

What do effective presidents need to know and what practices must be consistently performed for an enduring and distinguished legacy? Gain key insights from veteran leaders that will sharpen your competency and expand your capacity to provide effective leadership in the president's office. Designed for new and experienced presidents as well as leaders who aspire for future service, this conference is focused on executive skills, institutional oversight practices, risk management, and excellence in presidential professional and personal development.

FINANCIAL LEADERS CONFERENCE [1 1/2-DAY]

OCT 31 — NOV 1, 2023 [Early Bird Deadline — September 29] | Begins with dinner on 10/30, ends with lunch on 11/1

Sponsored By: Providence Capital Management & Brotherhood Mutual

During these days of high volatility in the higher education market, the prudent counsel of the CFO is more important than ever. It's imperative for CFOs to assist the president, board and leadership team to manage the financial side of the house well. This conference is designed specifically for that task, to sharpen your grasp important financial management issues including HR, government compliance and risk assessment responsibilities. Welcome to the journey.

STUDENT DEVELOPMENT LEADERS CONFERENCE [1 1/2-DAY]

NOV 7-8, 2023 [Early Bird Deadline — October 6] | Begins with dinner on 11/6, ends with lunch on 11/8

Leading student life on a college campus has never been more challenging. The role has expanded with demands for new levels of legal risks, government compliance and relational nuances. This is our day to serve Christ as wise shepherds of the flock — caring for students with grace and truth. Join others in the journey of leadership growth and impact.

SPRING 2024 LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT CONFERENCE LINEUP

ONLINE EDUCATION CONFERENCE [1 1/2-DAY]

MAR 19-20, 2024 [Early Bird Deadline — February 23] | Begins with dinner on 3/18, ends with lunch on 3/20

Sponsored by: Campus

Online education sustained many institutions through the pandemic. An opportunity is emerging on the other side of the pandemic to validate and in some cases to recast online education. What does excellence in online education look like? How does this impact marketing, recruiting, course design, delivery, learning assessment and program management? Consider best practices for online education from distinguished experts across ABHE and beyond.

SEXUAL HARASSMENT AND TITLE IX TRAINING CONFERENCE [1 1/2-DAY]

MAR 26-27, 2024 [Early Bird Deadline — February 23] | Begins with dinner on 3/25, ends with lunch on 3/27

Sponsored by: Moody Bible Institute

Being responsible for Title IX on your campus is a lonely responsibility with limited personnel and financial resources. Furthermore, there is tremendous burden to be compliant to federal expectations while safeguarding individuals and the institution. This Title IX training features personal and institutional assessments, an abundance of information to assist the Title IX beginner and compliment more experienced Title IX professionals.

COMPETENCY BASED THEOLOGICAL EDUCATION (CBTE) WORKSHOP [2-DAY]

APR 23-24, 2024 [Early Bird Deadline — March 15]

Adding competency-based theological education (CBTE) programs to your institutional offerings is very much like undertaking a home renovation. It's exciting — and intimidating. It's important to figure out what you need, what you want, what systems are necessary, and what's achievable in your situation. While you can do much of it yourself, having some help can go a long way! This two-day, hands-on intensive workshop allows you to play with a blueprint for your institution — exploring what a CBTE solution might look like for you.

ACHIEVING ACCREDITATION STANDARDS [2-DAY]

MAY 21-22, 2024 [Early Bird Deadline — April 19]

This conference provides an overview of all 11 ABHE Institutional Accreditation Standards, along with the 149 Essential Elements that must be met to satisfy each standard. The presentation-discussion format provides opportunity for participants to explore situations at their institutions and seek advice from the ABHE professional staff and senior evaluators on how to address those situations in the context of the standards.

THE ACCREDITATION JOURNEY [1 1/2-DAY]

MAY 22-23, 2024 [Early Bird Deadline — April 19] | Begins with dinner on 6/17, ends with lunch on 6/19

Designed for institutions and individuals interested in accreditation or just starting through the process. This 1-1/2 Day conference will be invaluable to individuals who have responsibility for accreditation initiatives and processes at their institutions. Institutions are encouraged to bring their accreditation teams to ensure broad understanding and shared commitment to the institutional responsibilities required for a successful accreditation journey.