

The President's Role in Accreditation

Carlo A. Serrano, Ph.D.
President, Manna University

Better is a handful of quietness than two hands full of toil and a striving after wind.

- Ecclesiastes 4:6

Understanding Accreditation

Again, I saw vanity under the sun: one person who has no other, either son or brother, yet there is no end to all his toil, and his eyes are never satisfied with riches, so that he never asks, “For whom am I toiling and depriving myself of pleasure?” This also is vanity and an unhappy business. - Ecclesiastes 4:7-8

The Spirit of Accreditation

Two are better than one, because they have a good reward for their toil. - Ecclesiastes 4:9

The President's Unique Role

For if they fall, one will lift up his fellow. But woe to him who is alone when he falls and has not another to lift him up! - Ecclesiastes 4:10

Key Accreditation Standards

S.1 – Integrity and Mission

S.3 – Authority and Governance

S.4 – Admin and HR

S.5 – Physical and Financial Resources

And though a man might prevail against one who is alone, two will withstand him—a threefold cord is not quickly broken.

- Ecclesiastes 4:12

Accreditation and Mission Alignment

Better was a poor and wise youth than an old and foolish king who no longer knew how to take advice. - Ecclesiastes 4:13

President's Engagement Level

For he went from prison to the throne, though in his own kingdom he had been born poor. -
Ecclesiastes 4:14

The President's Knowledge Base

I saw all the living who move about under the sun, along with that[b] youth who was to stand in the king's place.

- Ecclesiastes 4:15

Building the Accreditation Team

There was no end of all the people, all of whom he led. Yet those who come later will not rejoice in him. Surely this also is vanity and a striving after wind. - Ecclesiastes 4:16

Communication with Stakeholders

Be not rash with your mouth...For a dream comes with much business, and a fool's voice with many words.- Ecclesiastes 5:2-3

Challenges in Accreditation

For when dreams increase and words grow many, there is vanity; but God is the one you must fear. - Ecclesiastes 5:7

Effective Leadership in Accreditation

Wisdom gives strength to the wise man more than ten rulers who are in a city.

- Ecclesiastes 7:19

Biblical Perspective on Leadership

For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven.

- Ecclesiastes 3:1

Call to Action

I have seen the business that God has given to the children of man to be busy with. 11 He has made everything beautiful in its time. Also, he has put eternity into man's heart, yet so that he cannot find out what God has done from the beginning to the end. 12 I perceived that there is nothing better for them than to be joyful and to do good as long as they live; 13 also that everyone should eat and drink and take pleasure in all his toil—this is God's gift to man.- Ecclesiastes 3:10-13
